

Environmental Regulatory Specialist
Wek'èezhìi Land and Water Board
Yellowknife, NWT

The Wek'èezhìi Land and Water Board (WLWB)

The WLWB is a highly-respected organization with a collaborative and dynamic work environment. We are focused on fulfilling our mandate to provide for the conservation, development and utilization of land and water resources for the optimum benefit of residents of Wek'èezhìi, Northwest Territories and for all Canadians.

The Environmental Regulatory Specialist

We are seeking an energetic and highly organized individual to conduct reviews and assessments of major applications for land and water use in the Wek'èezhìi Region. The Environmental Regulatory Specialist:

- administers and coordinates land use permits, water licenses, and environmental management plans for mining, municipal, and other developments
- coordinates public reviews of land and/or water use applications
- coordinates the development of staff reports, preliminary screening reports, land-use permits, water licenses and reasons for decision
- presents recommendations for Board review and approval,
- monitors compliance with water licence and land use permit conditions, and
- contributes to ongoing improvement initiatives for regulatory processes.

The Candidate

You have a university degree in environmental science, engineering, or a related discipline with relevant work experience, preferably including exposure to the northern industrial development sectors. You have:

- knowledge of regulatory, environmental, technical, and scientific review processes
- knowledge of eco-management theories and practices and legislation, agreements and policies
- familiarity with scientific and technical issues related to northern environmental management
- strong project management skills, and
- excellent written and verbal communication skills.

Equivalencies will be considered. Knowledge of water quality principles would be considered an asset.

Salary: $78,983 - $93,989 plus additional allowances.

Benefits: Vacation Travel Assistance, pension plan, group health care, generous leave allowances, relocation assistance and other benefits.

Please send a cover letter and resume highlighting your experience by 5:00 PM on April 21, 2015 in confidence to:

The WLWB Human Resources Committee
c/o NorthWays Consulting northways@theedge.ca
867-873-2384 (fax)
867-873-5444 (tel)

We thank all those that apply, however, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.